WILD & SCENIC FILM FESTIVAL ON TOUR 2016

JANUARY 24 WARNER GRAND THEATRE & FEBRUARY 21 REDONDO UNION THEATER

PALOS VERDES PENINSULA, January 13– The Palos Verdes Peninsula is proud to present to the community for the Wild & Scenic Film Festival On Tour. The Festival will be held on Sunday, January 24, 4 pm at the Warner Grand Theatre in San Pedro and a second event has been added for Sunday, February 21 at the Redondo Union High Theatre, 4 pm.

Wild & Scenic Film Festival is the largest festival of its kind in the U.S. The Conservancy is pleased to present the festival on tour made possible with a generous grant provided by Patagonia. As a presenter, the Conservancy was selected to help raise awareness of local preservation issues. The Conservancy has selected an array of exciting, adventurous and inspirational films with beautiful cinematography featuring remarkable individuals whose passion is contagious. From Yosemite to Fiji and Namibia to Montana – up-close with courageous citizen scientists and thrill-seeking mountaineers, you'll be moved, transfixed, and energized to enjoy nature and make a difference in our world. The two-hour film festival will include raffle and door prizes and a short hula hoop competition during a brief intermission.

"We were thrilled to have almost 1,000 people join us for our inaugural festival last year to see beautiful and powerful stories about passionate individuals caring for and about the environment," says Andrea Vona, Executive Director of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Land Conservancy. "Many people with the Conservancy embody this kind of passion. That's the reason we were able to protect the land!"

Tickets purchased in advanced are $10 at www.pvplc.org. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $15. The afternoon includes incredible raffle prizes of products donated by REI and a hula hooping contest.

The festival presentation is generously supported by our presenting Corporate Sponsor Room & Board; our Ticket Sponsor Point Vicente Animal Hospital; and our Promotional Sponsors Coastal San Pedro Neighborhood Council and Wild Birds Unlimited.
