The Center is staffed with National Association for Interpretation certified naturalists to help visitors explore the rich cultural and natural history of the area.

Program partners:

White Point is owned by the City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks

The Conservancy is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to open space preservation and habitat restoration throughout the Peninsula.

Volunteer Opportunities

There are many ways to get involved. Contact Volunteer Program Manager Brittany Goldsmith at 310.541.7613 x215 or bgoldsmith@pvplc.org

Become a trained Docent for the White Point Nature Center & Preserve

Do you enjoy sharing nature with others? Become a White Point Docent and help run the Nature Center during open hours, school programs and special events. Contact Education Director Connie Smith at 310-541-7613 x205 or csmith@pvplc.org.

Join The White Point Community Group

Meet once a month with members of the local community at the Nature Center. Work in cooperation with the Conservancy to help plan land management, facility enhancements, fundraising and special events for the Preserve. To learn more contact the Conservancy at 310-541-7613.

Participate in Outdoor Volunteer Days

Join us to help care for the land at White Point Preserve. Check the calendar at pvplc.org for dates and times when you, your friends, and your family can volunteer. Or call us to arrange a special volunteer event for your group, organization, school, or business.
